

Show rules & information 2022

ELIGIBILITY & ACCEPTED MEDIUMS

Participation is open to all fine art and fine craft. All work represented must be of an original concept executed and designed by the artist in attendance. No artist's representatives are allowed in place of artist. In addition, work done by a production studio is not accepted. No work which has been made with commercial kits or patterns allowed. Exhibitors may not sell promotional items such (but not limited to) t-shirts, postcards, or books.

The following mediums are to be included in each show: ceramics, drawing, fiber non-functional, fiber functional, paper non-functional, furniture, glass, jewelry, acrylic, oil, watercolor, pastel, sculpture, wood, mixed media, collage, photography, and printmaking. Individual consideration of any media not listed will be given upon request. Please note: if a show is considered a fine craft event, appropriate two-dimensional works will be accepted.

EM Events and their client's reserves the right to remove any and all works deemed not suitable at the time of the festival. It also reserves the right to select or invite other applicants in order to ensure balance of medium. In addition, this show, reserves the right to not accept an artist for jury. In the event of this happening, your jury fee shall be returned. Submitting this application implies on your part commitment to all show rules.

ONLY THOSE ARTISTS WHO HAVE BEEN JURIED IN JEWELRY MAY HAVE JEWELRY IN THEIR BOOTHS.

E – JURY

Instructions for uploading e-jury images will be found online during the online application process. It is helpful for us if your booth image is from an actual show. Fabricated booth images are strongly discouraged. If we feel that your booth image is not a true representation of your display you will not be juried. You will be held to the standard of your booth display. We reserve the right to not jury an artist. In this event, jury fee shall be refunded.

Upon acceptance, any image submitted may be used by EM Events LLC for day of show jury purposes and possible publicity opportunity. Once an event has been juried, even if it is cancelled no jury fees will be refunded.

ARTIST STATEMENT

An artist statement revealing how the work is made, posted for the public to see at the show, is suggested for each booth.

PRINT POLICY

Both Photographers and Printmakers are required to disclose their printmaking process. Artist's hands must have manipulated the plate for printmaking.

REPRODUCTION POLICY

Reproductions are not prints. We define reproduction as a copy of an original image. This includes giclee prints. No photo copy or off set reproductions will be accepted. Please call if you have questions as to if your work will be accepted for jury.

REPRODUCTIONS OF ANY KIND ARE NOT ALLOWED AT THE GENEVA ARTS FAIR. If reproductions are found in your booth at the Geneva Arts Fair, they will be confiscated, and you will not be accepted for jury.

REPRODUCTIONS ON CANVAS

No reproductions on canvas (including prints from photography) allowed at any event.

DISPLAY SPACE

The footprint of each display space is 10' x 10'. With approximately 10 feet in between most booths. Larger display spaces are available for an additional fee. No wings are allowed unless preapproved and paid for. Each show will attempt to honor specific space requests; however, final booth location will be determined by the needs of each show.

Booth location and number are subject to change. Booth numbers are used for logistical purposes only and are not listed in our programs. Please be aware that you must register at registration before setting up your booth as placement and number may have changed due to show needs.

Only one exhibitor per booth except for galleries and collaborative events or work.

All areas will be patrolled both Friday night and Saturday night.

Most display spaces are free from obstruction behind booth. All spaces are easily accessible to patrons' traffic flow.

No card carousels are allowed at any event even if they hold original works of art.

LOAD IN & OUT

All shows are a drop and go for set-up. You are expected to unload and move your car before setting up.

For tear-down you must be completely torn down before you are allowed onsite with your vehicle.

TENTS AND WEIGHTS

All artists tents must be white and must be properly weighted. Please check with your tent manufacturer on proper weighting of your tent. If it is deemed by the committee that either your tent or weights are not suitable you will be first asked to correct the situation. If that is not possible then you will be asked to leave the show with no refund available.

Milk jugs with sand or water, small bricks, cement blocks, sandbags or other such items are not considered acceptable weights. We ask that you put as much thought and consideration into how your weights look and function with regards to your booth as you do with your artwork. If you have questions regarding your tent or weights, please call or e-mail prior to each show.

TAX ID/SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER

It is mandatory on your application to either list an Illinois Tax ID number or social security number as we are required to submit this information to the state of Illinois for tax purposes no later than 20 days after each event along with name, city, state, business name of each artist in attendance.

Each artist is responsible for collecting Illinois sales tax. Forms and additional information may be found on our website prior to each event.
